

Portfolio Requirements- Due December 9th in a 3-prong folder

1. Table of contents
2. Cover letter - A description of why you have chosen the pieces for the portfolio. What have you learned about writing and about yourself as a writer? What type of writing (project) did you like best? What has helped you most with your writing (both inside and out of class)? What could you do better? What should you continue to work on? What piece are you most proud of? Why? What important things have you learned about writing this semester? What has surprised you most about your writing? What piece might you want to share with someone outside of class?

3. 8 pieces of your original writing for this course in this order

1. In one of your 8 pieces chosen-m change the beginning and change the ending – this :
2. write a paragraph detailing the changes made to the beginning and the ending label

3. In one piece of your 8 pieces chosen - add 5 more details –

4. write a paragraph detailing the added description

5. In one piece of your 8 pieces chosen - add an additional paragraph about what happens next what happens to the characters once the original story ends –

6. write a paragraph detailing the added scene

7. Original piece of writing
8. Original piece of writing
9. Original piece of writing
10. Original piece of writing
11. Original piece of writing

Due: December 9th

Share: December 10th